NZ Requirements 2021

NZ Artistic Requirements

There have been some minor changes made to the New Zealand Artistic Requirements for 2021. These changes are mostly to bring our schedule into line with the World Skate grade requirements by including recently announced changes to things like the timing for footwork sequences, new combination spin or combination jump rules etc.

The changes effect the following grades:

- Advanced Masters Solo Dance and Couples Dance - Freedance
- Masters Solo Dance and Couples Dance - Style Dance
- Advanced Solo Freedance
- Minis Solo Dance – Freedance
- Cadet Solo Dance – Freedance
- Youth Solo Dance – Freedance
- Junior Solo Dance and Couples Dance – Style Dance and Freedance
- Senior Solo Dance and Couples Dance – Style Dance and Freedance
- Espoir Freeskating – Long Programme
- Cadet Freeskating – Long Programme
- Youth Freeskating and Free Pairs – Long Programme
- Masters Freeskating

PLEASE NOTE that there have been more extensive changes to the National Freeskating grades; New Entrant, Novice 1 and Novice 2. Please make sure you are familiar with these changes if you are a skater in one of these grades or if you are working with a skater in one of these grades.

A copy of the updated 2021 NZ Artistic Requirements has been sent out with this newsflash and is also available on the NZ artistic website. The updates are in red for ease of identification.

NZ Technical Panel Examiners

With the imminent release of national assessments for RollArt Technical Panel Officials, the Artistic Committee has appointed the following examiners:

NZ Freeskating Technical Specialist Examiner – Pam Peters

NZ Dance Technical Specialist Examiner – Pam Peters
